

André Chastel Centre : meetings

Return to french version

The André Chastel Centre presents, since 2012, a series of scientific meetings in the various fields of the history of medieval, modern and contemporary art. It is now coordinated by Sabine Berger (University Paris-Sorbonne) and Stéphane Castelluccio (CNRS), following Jérémie Koering (CNRS) and Emmanuel Lurin (University Paris-Sorbonne).

The conferences aim to present to the public the most recent works of the members and associates of the Lab.

Open to all, these meetings take place at the André Chastel Centre, 2 rue Vivienne, Galerie Colbert, 75002 Paris.
